Specification

1. The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: The specification may not include figures.

Appropriate correction is required.

Information Disclosure Statement

2. Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

3. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claims 1-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter. The instant claims directed to a “use” are considered to be drawn to non-statutory subject matter.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

4. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

Art Unit: 1793

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

5. Claims 1-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claims 1-11 raise an issue of indefiniteness under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph. Merely reciting a use without any active, positive steps delimiting how this use is actually practiced is considered to render the claims indefinite. Ex parte Erlich, 3 USPQ2d 1011 (Bd. Pat. App. & Inter. 1986). Also see MPEP 2173.05(q).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

6. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

7. Claims 1-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Cu (3,885,182).

The claims are interpreted as claiming a glass ceramic composition used in lamps.

See glass ceramic composition, column 1, lines 55-65. The claims are considered anticipated.

8. Claims 1-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Chu et al (4,045,156).

Art Unit: 1793

See glass ceramic composition, column 6, lines 1-10. The claims are considered anticipated.

9. Claims 1-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Bishop et al (3,451,579).

See composition, column 2, lines 18-32. The claims are considered anticipated.

10. Claims 1-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Japanese document 2002173338.

See glass ceramic composition in abstract. The claims are considered anticipated.

11. Claims 1-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Siebers et al (20020183187).

See composition column 2, lines 45-60 as well as paragraphs [0005,0023,0051].
The claims are anticipated.
